JEFFERSON VALLEY MUSEUM
Membership Application

The Jefferson Valley Museum was envisioned, developed and still maintained by local volunteers and supported financially through donations and memberships. The museum is open to all people with no entrance fee.

In order to ensure the continued operation of the museum which helps to preserve our valley's past for future generations, we need new members and volunteers.

You can help by becoming a member. Your annual membership contribution helps pay for maintenance and monthly bills as well as the cost of preserving donated artifacts. All members (Family has two votes) are entitled to a vote at the Museum Annual Meeting on the first Thursday of April. You can join the JV Museum family of supporters by completing the form below

For information on volunteering at the museum, contact any of our museum board members:
Ron Hunt, President; Tim Mulligan, Vice-president; Arlene Weber, Secretary; Laurie Rathe, Treasurer; or board members Tim Geary, Norm Tebay, and Diane Jensen.
